

WINEBIBBER

Meaning: Winebibber: A person who habitually drinks wine or alcohol, often to excess.

1. The old man at the tavern was known as a winebibber, always sharing tales over a glass of red.
2. Despite his reputation as a winebibber, he insisted that he only enjoyed the occasional glass with dinner.
3. At the festival, the winebibber delighted the crowd with stories of his adventures fueled by fine wines.
4. Her friends often joked that the winebibber in their group could outlast anyone when it came to late-night toasts.
5. The winebibber raised his glass, proclaiming that life was too short not to indulge in good wine.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/winebibber>