

WINNOWING

Meaning: Winnowing is the process of separating valuable elements from worthless ones, often used to describe the filtering of grains from chaff or distinguishing accurate information from misinformation.

1. The process of winnowing separates the valuable grains from the chaff.
2. In the digital age, winnowing information from misinformation has become crucial.
3. Farmers rely on winnowing techniques to ensure only the best seeds are planted.
4. The committee spent weeks winnowing down the list of candidates for the award.
5. Winnowing ideas during brainstorming sessions can lead to more focused discussions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/winnowing>