

WINROW

Meaning: Winrow (verb): To arrange cut hay or similar material into rows to facilitate drying.

1. The farmer decided to winrow the hay to speed up the drying process.
2. As the sun set, the fields were filled with winrows, creating a picturesque landscape.
3. She learned to winrow the grass efficiently, ensuring a bountiful harvest.
4. The tractor moved steadily, expertly winrowing the harvested crops for easier collection.
5. After the rain stopped, they rushed to winrow the remaining grass before the next storm.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/winrow>