

WITCHING

Meaning: WITCHING: Adjective describing something enchanting or magical, often associated with a mysterious or supernatural quality.

1. The moon hung low in the sky, casting a witching glow over the forest.
2. She felt the witching hour approach, a time when magic was said to be at its peak.
3. The old bookshop was rumored to contain witching spells that could change one's fate.
4. On Halloween night, the children reveled in tales of witching powers and enchanted adventures.
5. The witching atmosphere of the village market drew in curious visitors from miles around.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/witching>