

WITH

Meaning: 'With' is a preposition used to indicate being in the company of or in the presence of someone or something.

1. She went to the concert with her friends.
2. I will bring my camera with me on our trip.
3. He enjoys painting with bright colors and bold strokes.
4. They discussed the project with great enthusiasm.
5. She danced gracefully with her partner on the stage.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/with>