

WITHDRAW

Meaning: Withdraw: to remove oneself from a situation or to take out money from a financial account.

1. She decided to withdraw her application after reconsidering her options.
2. The bank allows customers to withdraw cash from ATMs at any time of day.
3. He had to withdraw from the competition due to an injury.
4. After the meeting, she felt compelled to withdraw her earlier statements.
5. They chose to withdraw support for the project when they saw the budget overruns.
6. She decided to withdraw from the competition due to an injury.
7. The bank would not allow him to withdraw more than his available balance.
8. After careful consideration, I chose to withdraw my application for the job.
9. He felt it was time to withdraw from social media to focus on his mental health.
10. The army was ordered to withdraw from the region after the peace negotiations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/withdraw>