

WITHERING

Meaning: Withering refers to the process of becoming dry and shriveled, or to expressing scorn or disdain that causes others to feel diminished or silenced.

1. The withering leaves fell softly to the ground as autumn approached.
2. Her withering gaze silenced the room, leaving everyone speechless.
3. The plant began withering after weeks without sunlight and water.
4. He delivered a withering critique of the project, pointing out every flaw.
5. Withering under pressure, she struggled to maintain her composure during the meeting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/withering>