

WITLING

Meaning: Witling: a person who makes clever or amusing remarks but lacks depth or seriousness in intellect.

1. The witling in the group always managed to lighten the mood with his clever quips.
2. Despite his cleverness, he often came off as a witling rather than a true intellectual.
3. She found his attempts at humor to be more witling than witty, lacking depth and substance.
4. Among the scholars, he was regarded as a witling, often overshadowed by those with more profound insights.
5. At the dinner party, the witling dominated the conversation, leaving little room for serious discussion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/witling>