

WONT

Meaning: "WONT" is a contraction of "will not," used to indicate a refusal or inability to do something.

1. He won't be able to attend the meeting tomorrow.
2. Despite her best efforts, she won't change her mind about the decision.
3. I know he won't let us down when it matters most.
4. They won't finish the project on time without additional help.
5. She won't appreciate the surprise if we don't give her a hint first.
6. She has a wont to arrive late to every meeting.
7. His wont is to take long walks every evening to clear his mind.
8. It's her wont to read a book before going to bed each night.
9. They have a wont of gathering at the same café every Sunday.
10. His wont for perfection often leads to frustration in group projects.
11. She was wont to spend her weekends exploring new hiking trails.
12. The old man was wont to sit by the fireplace and tell stories of his youth.
13. In the quiet town, it was wont for neighbors to share home-cooked meals.
14. He is wont to forget his keys, which often leads to frustrating delays.
15. The artist was wont to draw inspiration from the vibrant landscapes around her.
16. She has a wont to stay up late, reading novels that captivate her imagination.
17. His wont for adventure often leads him to explore uncharted territories.
18. It is her wont to greet every morning with a cup of coffee and a smile.
19. The cat has a wont of lounging in the sunniest spot in the house.
20. They have developed a wont of meeting for brunch every Sunday.
21. He has a wont to speak his mind, regardless of the consequences.
22. Her wont was to take long walks in the evening, reflecting on her day.

23. The cat has a peculiar wont of sleeping in the sunniest spot in the house.
24. Despite his wont to be late, he surprised everyone by arriving on time.
25. It is her wont to read a chapter before bed every night.
26. She has a wont to read before bed every night.
27. His wont to procrastinate often leads to last-minute stress.
28. Despite her wont to avoid confrontation, she spoke up this time.
29. His wont of telling stories always entertained the children.
30. She has a wont to stay up late reading novels.
31. His wont to avoid confrontation often leads to misunderstandings.
32. The dog has a wont of barking at every passerby.
33. They are accustomed to their wont of spending weekends in the countryside.
34. It's her wont to greet everyone with a warm smile.
35. She has a wont to wake up early every morning.
36. His wont of helping others often goes unrecognized.
37. It's her wont to bring homemade treats to the office each Friday.
38. The cat has a wont of lounging in the sun for hours.
39. They have a wont of gathering at the same café every weekend.