

WOOD-BOUND

Meaning: Wood-bound: characterized by being constructed or surrounded by wood, often in a rustic or natural manner.

1. The old cabin was beautifully wood-bound, with logs stacked in a rustic manner.
2. As we hiked deeper into the forest, we discovered a wood-bound path that felt enchanted.
3. Their home had a charming, wood-bound aesthetic that blended perfectly with the surrounding nature.
4. The artist painted a serene landscape of a wood-bound village nestled in the hills.
5. In the wood-bound library, the scent of pine mixed with the pages of ancient books.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wood-bound>