

WOOD-NOTE

Meaning: Wood-note: a natural, soft sound or melody reminiscent of the forest, often associated with the calls of birds or other wildlife.

1. The soft wood-note of the forest filled the air as we walked among the trees.
2. As dusk fell, the wood-note of the evening chorus wrapped around us like a warm blanket.
3. She loved to listen to the wood-note of the sparrows as they flitted through the branches.
4. The wood-note of the distant owl reminded him of peaceful nights spent in the countryside.
5. In the quiet glade, the wood-note of nature seemed to whisper secrets to anyone who would listen.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wood-note>