

WOODENNESS

Meaning: Woodenness refers to a lack of emotional warmth or expressiveness, resulting in a stiff or unengaging presentation or performance.

1. The woodenness of his speech made it difficult for the audience to connect with him emotionally.
2. Despite her enthusiasm, there was an undeniable woodenness in her performance that detracted from the overall effect.
3. The artist aimed to capture the essence of nature, yet his work suffered from a certain woodenness that felt artificial.
4. As the actors delivered their lines, the woodenness in their delivery suggested a lack of rehearsal and preparation.
5. Critics noted the woodenness in the dialogue, claiming it lacked the authenticity needed to resonate with viewers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/woodenness>