

WOODMONGER

Meaning: A woodmonger is a person who sells or deals in timber and firewood.

1. The woodmonger carefully selected the finest timber for the custom furniture he was crafting.
2. In rural areas, a woodmonger often becomes the go-to source for anyone needing firewood in winter.
3. With a keen eye for quality, the woodmonger identified the best cuts of wood for his woodworking projects.
4. The village relied on the woodmonger not just for supplies, but also for his expertise in different types of wood.
5. As a seasoned woodmonger, she could tell the difference between hardwood and softwood just by the scent.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/woodmonger>