

WOOF

Meaning: "WOOF" is an onomatopoeic word representing the sound made by a dog, often used to convey excitement or alertness.

1. The dog barked a loud "woof" that echoed through the park.
2. As soon as she heard the familiar "woof," she knew her puppy was excited to see her.
3. He playfully imitated a dog's "woof" to make the children laugh.
4. The sleepy dog stretched and let out a soft "woof" before settling back down.
5. With each "woof," the little terrier seemed to challenge the larger dogs nearby.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/woof>