

WORTHINESS

Meaning: Worthiness: the quality of being deserving of respect, approval, or consideration based on merit or value.

1. Her worthiness as a leader was demonstrated through her commitment to her team's success.
2. The committee debated the worthiness of the candidates before making their final selection.
3. Many people struggle to see their own worthiness, often underestimating their contributions.
4. The award was given to her in recognition of her worthiness and dedication to the community.
5. In the end, his worthiness was defined not by his achievements, but by his character and integrity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/worthiness>