

WOUL

Meaning: 'WOUL' is a misspelling of 'would,' which is used to indicate a conditional action or willingness to do something.

1. I would love to travel to Japan if I had the chance.
2. She said she would help me with my project over the weekend.
3. If I had known you were in town, I would have invited you to dinner.
4. He would always bring his guitar to the campfire, making the nights magical.
5. They would never forget the kindness shown to them during their travels.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/woul>