

WOUNDLESS

Meaning: WOUNDLESS: Adjective describing a state or quality that is free from harm, injury, or the effects of conflict.

1. The artist's vision was a woundless landscape, untouched by the scars of human conflict.
2. In her woundless laughter, I found solace, a reminder that joy can exist even in the most trying times.
3. The woundless heart remained open to love, refusing to be hardened by past betrayals.
4. He spoke of a woundless world where kindness was the currency of every interaction.
5. Together, they dreamed of a woundless future, free from the pain and strife that had marked their past.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/woundless>