

WRECKFUL

Meaning: WRECKFUL (adjective): characterized by destruction or disorder, often referring to a scene filled with wreckage or debris.

1. The shipwreck was a wreckful sight, with debris scattered across the shore.
2. After the storm, the once peaceful harbor became a wreckful scene of overturned boats.
3. Her emotional state was wreckful, leaving her feeling lost and overwhelmed.
4. The aftermath of the accident was wreckful, with shattered glass and twisted metal everywhere.
5. Witnessing the wreckful destruction caused by the wildfire left the community in shock.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wreckful>