

WULL

Meaning: "Wull" means to will or intend to do something, often with a sense of determination or obligation.

1. The old man swore he would wull the fields to ensure a bountiful harvest.
2. She asked if he would wull the task to his younger brother.
3. In the village, it was customary to wull the new crops with a special ceremony.
4. He believed that if he could only wull his dreams into reality, life would be perfect.
5. After much deliberation, they decided to wull their resources for the common good.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wull>