

WUNG-OUT

Meaning: Wung-out: extremely tired or exhausted.

1. After a long day at work, I felt completely wung-out and just wanted to relax at home.
2. The kids were so wung-out from the party that they fell asleep before dinner.
3. He always feels wung-out after his intense workouts at the gym.
4. Studying for exams can leave students feeling emotionally and mentally wung-out.
5. By the end of the week, I was utterly wung-out from all the meetings and deadlines.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/wung-out>