

XANTHOGENIC

Meaning: Xanthogenic refers to substances or effects that cause or promote the production of yellow pigments, particularly in the context of certain chemicals influencing plant growth or agricultural practices.

1. The study focused on the xanthogenic effects of certain chemicals in agricultural practices.
2. Researchers discovered a xanthogenic compound that could potentially enhance plant growth.
3. The xanthogenic reaction in the test subjects raised concerns about long-term health impacts.
4. A deeper understanding of xanthogenic processes could lead to breakthroughs in environmental science.
5. The xanthogenic nature of the substance was confirmed through advanced analytical techniques.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/xanthogenic>