

YAP

Meaning: Yap (verb): to make a sharp, high-pitched bark or sound, typically associated with small dogs.

1. The small dog began to yap excitedly as soon as it saw its owner.
2. She couldn't help but laugh at the dog's incessant yap during the movie.
3. As the doorbell rang, the neighbor's dog started to yap loudly.
4. He tried to ignore the yap of the small creature, focusing on his work instead.
5. The sound of a yap echoed through the quiet neighborhood in the early morning.
6. The small dog began to yap excitedly when it saw its owner approaching.
7. As he listened to the debate, he couldn't help but yap in agreement with her arguments.
8. The children would yap happily as they played outside during the warm summer afternoons.
9. She tried to shush the dog, but it continued to yap at the passing cars.
10. His constant yap during the meeting made it hard for anyone to concentrate on the presentation.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/yap>