

YAUD

Meaning: Yaud (verb): to emit a loud, harsh cry or shout, often associated with a sudden or unexpected noise.

1. The old man gave a loud yaud as he stumbled over the uneven pavement.
2. Her yaud echoed through the forest, startling the nearby wildlife.
3. During the lively festival, people began to yaud in excitement as the fireworks lit up the sky.
4. He couldn't help but yaud with laughter at the comedian's hilarious punchline.
5. As the tension in the room grew, a sudden yaud broke the silence, easing the atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/yaud>