

YAWN

Meaning: YAWN: a reflex action of opening the mouth wide and inhaling deeply, often triggered by tiredness or boredom.

1. She couldn't help but yawn during the long lecture on quantum physics.
2. After staying up late to finish her book, a big yawn escaped her lips at breakfast.
3. The baby let out a wide yawn, signaling that it was time for a nap.
4. As the movie dragged on, the audience's collective yawns became more frequent.
5. He tried to stifle a yawn during the meeting, but it was clearly a losing battle.
6. She couldn't help but yawn during the long lecture on quantum mechanics.
7. The baby let out a big yawn before drifting off to sleep in her mother's arms.
8. As the movie dragged on, he stifled a yawn, trying to stay awake.
9. Feeling exhausted after a long day, all she wanted to do was yawn and relax on the couch.
10. His yawn was contagious, spreading through the room like a wave of tiredness.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/yawn>