

YEEL

Meaning: Yeel (noun): a loud, enthusiastic shout or cheer expressing excitement or joy, often from a crowd or audience.

1. The unexpected yeel from the crowd signaled a moment of excitement during the game.
2. As the musician played, a joyful yeel erupted from the audience, filling the air with energy.
3. She let out a yeel of delight when she saw her favorite band take the stage.
4. The yeel of enthusiasm from the fans could be heard blocks away from the concert venue.
5. In the midst of the celebration, a spontaneous yeel broke out, uniting everyone in a shared moment of joy.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/yeel>