

YELL

Meaning: YELL: to shout loudly, often to attract attention or express strong emotion.

1. She had to yell at the referee to get his attention during the heated game.
2. In the midst of the chaos, I could hear someone yell for help from the crowd.
3. The children love to yell with excitement when the ice cream truck comes down the street.
4. Despite the noise, I could still hear him yell my name from across the park.
5. When the thunder struck, she couldn't help but yell in surprise and fear.
6. She had to yell to be heard over the noise of the crowd.
7. The coach would often yell instructions during the game to motivate the players.
8. After the surprise announcement, everyone began to yell in excitement.
9. He felt the urge to yell in frustration when things didn't go as planned.
10. The teacher asked the students not to yell in the library, as it was a quiet space.
11. When he saw the surprise party, he couldn't help but yell with excitement.
12. The teacher asked the students not to yell in the library.
13. During the game, fans began to yell their team's chant in unison.
14. She tried to yell for help, but her voice was barely a whisper.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/yell>