

YELLOW-EYED

Meaning: Yellow-eyed: having eyes that are yellow in color, often conveying an intense or striking appearance.

1. The yellow-eyed cat perched silently on the windowsill, watching the world go by.
2. Her yellow-eyed gaze seemed to pierce through the darkness, revealing secrets hidden within.
3. In the dim light of the forest, the yellow-eyed creature stirred, its presence both eerie and captivating.
4. Legends spoke of a yellow-eyed spirit that roamed the hills, guiding lost souls home.
5. With a flick of its tail, the yellow-eyed fox vanished into the underbrush, leaving only a whisper of movement.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/yellow-eyed>