

YEND

Meaning: 'Yend' means to bend or curve in a particular direction.

1. The river began to yend towards the east as it flowed through the valley.
2. After hours of walking, we reached a point where the path would yend into the forest.
3. The artist decided to yend the sculpture to reflect the natural curves of the landscape.
4. As the sun set, the road would yend, leading us back to the familiar town square.
5. They watched as the kite began to yend in the wind, soaring higher into the sky.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/yend>