YOUR

Meaning: 'Your' is a possessive adjective used to indicate something that belongs to or is associated with the person being addressed.

1. Your dedication to the project has truly inspired the team.
2. I appreciate your feedback on the presentation; it was very helpful.
3. Is this book yours, or did you borrow it from someone?
4. Your smile always brightens up my day, no matter how I feel.
5. Please make sure to bring your ID to the event tomorrow.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/your