

YUCKEL

Meaning: 'Yuckel' is an exclamation used to express disgust or distaste.

1. The children all exclaimed, "Yuckel!" when they saw the slimy creature in the garden.
2. After tasting the new flavor of ice cream, she couldn't help but say, "Yuckel, that's awful!"
3. He made a face and said, "Yuckel, I can't believe you actually like that!"
4. Upon discovering the mystery meat in the fridge, she wrinkled her nose and muttered, "Yuckel, I think it's gone bad."
5. The party took a turn for the worse when someone accidentally spilled a drink, prompting a chorus of "Yuckel!" from the guests.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/yuckel>