

ZEALOTICAL

Meaning: Zealotical: characterized by excessive zeal or fanaticism, often to the point of being intolerant of differing views or opinions.

1. His zealotical approach to the issue alienated those who held differing opinions.
2. The zealotical fervor of the protestors made it difficult for a rational dialogue to occur.
3. She was known for her zealotical commitment to environmental causes, often disregarding other viewpoints.
4. The zealotical nature of his beliefs led him to reject any evidence that contradicted his views.
5. In a world of compromise, her zealotical stance became a point of contention among her peers.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/zealotical>