ZEBRINE

Meaning: ZEBRINE: Adjective describing a pattern or characteristic resembling the stripes of a zebra, often used in fashion or biological contexts.

1. The zebrine pattern of the fabric added a unique touch to the fashion line.
2. Researchers studied the zebrine characteristics of the newly discovered species to understand its evolution.
3. Her artwork featured a striking zebrine design that captivated everyone at the gallery.
4. The zebrine markings on the animal helped it blend seamlessly into its environment.
5. In the world of fashion, the zebrine print has become a popular trend for its boldness and flair.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/zebrine