

ZEND

Meaning: Zend refers to a company and framework that provides tools and resources for developing web applications, particularly in PHP.

1. The software development team decided to use Zend for its robust framework capabilities.
2. After attending the Zend conference, I felt inspired to dive deeper into PHP programming.
3. She was thrilled to discover that her favorite web application was built using Zend technologies.
4. The company implemented Zend Server to enhance their application's performance and scalability.
5. He recommended that I explore Zend Framework for building more efficient web applications.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/zend>