

ZENDIK

Meaning: Zendik: a person regarded as a heretic or non-believer, particularly within certain Islamic contexts.

1. The term 'zendik' refers to someone who is considered a heretic or a non-believer in certain Islamic contexts.
2. In the historical context of Sufism, being labeled a zendik could lead to severe social consequences.
3. The philosopher's ideas were so radical that his opponents branded him a zendik to discredit his teachings.
4. Throughout history, individuals accused of being zendiks often faced persecution for their beliefs.
5. In literature, the character labeled as a zendik often represents the struggle against oppressive dogma.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/zendik>