

ZIRCONOID

Meaning: ZIRCONOID: A synthetic or imitation gemstone resembling zircon, often used in jewelry and industrial applications.

1. The jeweler showed me a stunning ring set with a dazzling zirconoid stone that caught the light beautifully.
2. Scientists are studying the properties of zirconoid materials for potential applications in high-tech industries.
3. Her collection included various gemstones, but the zirconoid stood out for its striking clarity and brilliance.
4. In some cases, zirconoid can be used as a cost-effective alternative to diamonds in engagement rings.
5. The vibrant colors of the zirconoid made it a popular choice among fashion designers looking for unique elements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/zirconoid>