

ZOPHORIC

Meaning: ZOPHORIC: characterized by a feeling of intense relief or euphoria, especially after a period of stress or difficulty.

1. The patient's condition took a turn for the better, leaving the doctor feeling almost zophoric in the midst of the crisis.
2. After a long day of work, she felt a zophoric sense of relief as she sank into her favorite armchair.
3. The zophoric effect of the music swept through the crowd, lifting their spirits and encouraging them to dance.
4. He described the zophoric atmosphere of the festival, where laughter and joy seemed to be contagious.
5. In the world of literature, few authors can create a zophoric experience quite like that of a great storyteller.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/zophoric>